Churgin: (After [] had left for Bank) Inquired if we have heard that one Ilmars Karklins, who lives in Sweden might be going to Latvia to visit his former wife and relatives. [] promised to check (and called Ch. later that we have not). [] agreed that if we don't know about it Ch. could write to him and inquire among other things if that's true. Ch. knows I.K. personally since some time ago. Churgin also indicated that he read in 31 May 1958 LATVIJA that Boris wife had died. [] acknowledged this. Ch. wanted to know under what circumstances since the paper indicated that she died in Kaufbeuren Hospital which was known to him as insane asylum. However she was getting her salary up till the end, and that we are working on her case and that everything is being done to settle Boris estate. Ch. inquired if Petersons and Lukins in Sweden should not be warned about AECOB/7 since they consider him a Latvian patriot and still correspond with him. [] to check with [] in re to this.
